Cap. 126.

THE TOURIST TRADE DEVELOPMENT BOARD LAW.

[7th November, 1925.]

1. This Law may be cited as the Tourist Trade Short title.
Development Board Law.

2. In this Law—

Interpretation.

“advertising” means advertising in newspapers or magazines or by pamphlets, or by any other method of advertising approved by the Board;

“hotel company” means any corporation, company or person engaged in the business of carrying on an hotel;

“steamship company” means any corporation, company or person engaged in shipping business;

“the Board” means the Tourist Trade Development
Board constituted and appointed under this Law;

“the Rules” means rules made under this Law.

3.—(1) It shall be lawful for the Governor—

Appointment
of Board.

(a) to appoint a Tourist Trade Development Board for the Island consisting of not more than ten persons;

(b) to appoint one of the members of such Board to be the chairman thereof;

(c) to fill any vacancies in the Board occasioned by death, illness or temporary absence from the Island of any member of the Board.

(2) At least two members of the Board shall be chosen from the members of the House of Representatives.

(3) It shall be lawful for the members of the Board to appoint from amongst their number a chairman during the temporary absence of the chairman owing to illness, inability to attend, absence from the Island or other reasonable cause, and in the event of their failing so to do, the Governor may appoint a temporary chairman.

Duties of Board.

4. The Board shall have the following duties and powers:---

- (a) to make all such enquiries and to collect all such information as the Board think necessary for the purpose of promoting the thorough advertising of Jamaica as a tourist resort and for such other purposes as in the judgment of the Board will materially facilitate and increase the tourist traffic to and from Jamaica and to make such reports and recommendations in connection with the above matters to the Governor in Council as the Board may deem necessary;
- (b) to adopt all such measures as in the opinion of the Board may be necessary for thoroughly advertising Jamaica as a tourist resort, and for such other purposes as will materially facilitate and increase the tourist traffic to and from Jamaica;
- (c) for all or any of such purposes to appoint any such agent or agents as the Board may deem necessary and to arrange for the remuneration of the same either by salary, commission or otherwise as the Board may think proper;
- (d) to accept from any hotel or steamship company or from any mercantile or trading company or any persons any contribution for all or any of the purposes of this Law and to administer the same either solely or by joint arrangement with any such hotel or steamship company or any other company or person as aforesaid for the benefit of Jamaica generally but not in such a way as to favour any one person or company;

- (e) subject to the approval of the Governor in Council to enter into and make such contract or contracts as the Board may deem necessary for all or any of the purposes of this Law;
- (f) subject to the approval of the Governor in Council and to confirmation by the House of Representatives and for the special purposes of this Law to make any contract for the provision of steamship communication between any port in Jamaica and any other port, and to pay for the same either by way of annual subsidy, guarantee of debenture interest or commission on number of passengers brought to Jamaica:

Provided that under any such contract the Board may introduce such special conditions or stipulations as may be deemed necessary for the purposes of this Law;

- (g) to appoint if necessary a clerk and such other office assistants as the Board may deem necessary, and at such remuneration as the Board may determine;
- (h) generally to take all such other measures as the Board may consider likely to carry out most effectually the objects of this Law either alone or in conjunction with any other Board or Boards in Jamaica.

5.—(1) There shall be payable out of the Public Revenue of the Island to the Board for the purposes of this Law by warrant of the Governor in the usual manner

Contribution
by Public Revenue.

in each financial year such sum or sums of money as may be voted in and by the annual Appropriation Law.

(2) All sums paid to the Board under this section shall be administered either solely or by joint arrangement with any hotel or steamship company, or any other company or person.

(3) In addition to the said sums the Board may utilise for the purpose of this Law any sums received by the Board in payment for advertisements in any advertising pamphlet or other document issued under this Law or any sums received by the Board from any other sources for the purposes of carrying out the objects of this Law.

Reports by Board.

6.--(1) The Board shall submit to the Governor in Council in the month of January of every year the following reports:—

- (a) a report dealing with the operations of and measures taken by the Board;
- (b) a report showing the financial expenditure and receipts of the Board for the previous year.

(2) A copy of all such reports shall be laid before the House of Representatives as soon as practicable thereafter.

Power to make rules.

7. The Board may with the approval of the Governor in Council make rules for carrying into effect the objects of this Law.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

61 OF 1954.THE TOURIST BOARD LAW, 1954.

[1st April, 1955.]

Preliminary.

Short title. 1. This Law may be cited as the Tourist Board Law, 1954.

Interpreta- 2. In this Law, unless the context otherwise requires—tion. “the Board” means the Tourist Board established in accordance with this Law;

Cap. 383. “the former Board” means the Tourist Trade Development Board constituted and appointed under the Tourist Trade Development Board Law (hereby repealed);

 “chairman” includes any person elected under this Law to act as chairman;

 “the Committee” has the meaning assigned to it by subsection (1) of section 13 of this Law;

 “hotel” means any building or buildings within the same precinct, containing an aggregate number of not less than ten bedrooms for the accommodation of guests for reward together with the precinct thereof and all other buildings and structures within such precinct;

 “member” includes chairman;

 “the Minister” means the member of Executive Council charged for the time being with responsibility for tourist trade;

 “nominating body” means a body authorized by this Law to nominate a member of the Board.

Establishment and Constitution of Board.

3.—(1) There shall be established for the purposes of this Law a body to be called the Tourist Board.

Establishment and composition of Board.

(2) The Board shall consist of twenty members one of whom shall be appointed by the Governor in Council, and the remaining nineteen by the Governor in Council as follows—

- (a) ten members, on the nomination of persons carrying on the business of supplying hotel accommodation to tourists in the Island, so however, that not more than nine of such members shall be appointed on the nomination of the Jamaica Hotels Association;
- (b) three members, on the nomination of persons engaged in commerce in the Island, so, however, that not more than two of such members shall be appointed on the nomination of the Jamaica Chamber of Commerce Limited;
- (c) two members, on the nomination of the Airlines Association of Jamaica;
- (d) one member, on the nomination of the Shipping Association of Jamaica; and
- (e) three members, on the nomination of persons carrying on the business of supplying transportation to tourists travelling within the Island, so, however, that one of such members shall be appointed on the nomination of the travel agencies and the other two on the nomination of the taxi-cab associations.

(3) All nominations under the provisions of subsection (2) of this section shall be subject to the approval of the Governor in Council.

4. The Governor, after consultation with the Minister, may appoint any person to act temporarily in the place of a member of the Board other than the chairman in the case of the absence or inability to act of such member, and any person so appointed to act shall be representative of the same interests as the member in whose place he is appointed.

Temporary appointments.

Chairman.

5.—(1) The Board shall at their first meeting and thereafter at their first meeting in each year, elect a chairman from amongst their number.

(2) The chairman of the Board shall hold office as such until the election of his successor.

(3) A retiring chairman shall be eligible for re-election.

(4) In the case of the absence or inability to act of the chairman the Board may elect one of their number to act as chairman temporarily in the place of the chairman.

(5) If a vacancy occurs in the office of chairman before the time appointed in subsection (1) of this section for the holding of the next election of a chairman, the Board shall, as soon as may be practicable, meet and elect a chairman who shall hold office as such until the election of a chairman at the first meeting of the Board in the next succeeding year.

Tenure of office of member.

6. A member of the Board shall, subject to the provisions of this Law, hold office for a period not exceeding three years, but such member shall be eligible for re-appointment.

Resignation.

7.—(1) Any member of the Board, other than the chairman, may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister and transmitted through the chairman, and from the date of the receipt by the Minister of such instrument, such member shall cease to be a member of the Board.

(2) The chairman may at any time resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister and such resignation shall take effect as from the date of the receipt of such instrument by the Minister.

8. The Governor in Council may at any time revoke the appointment of any member of the Board.

Revocation of appointment.

9.—(1) Every nominating body shall make their nominations to the Board as soon as possible and shall, upon the written request of the Minister, furnish him with the names of the persons so nominated by them.

Duty to nominate and consequences of failure to do so.

(2) If any nominating body fail to furnish the Minister with the names of such members within thirty days of the receipt by that body of such request the Governor in Council may appoint any person appearing to him to be qualified as having had experience of and shown capacity in matters relating to the tourist industry or in commercial matters to be a member of the Board and a representative of that body on the Board.

10. The names of all members of the Board as first constituted and every change in the membership thereof shall be published in the Gazette.

Publication of membership of Board.

11.—(1) The Board shall be a body corporate having perpetual succession and a common seal with power to purchase, lease or otherwise acquire and hold and dispose of land and other property of whatever kind.

Incorporation.

(2) The seal of the Board shall be authenticated by the signature of the chairman or one member of the Board authorized to act in that behalf and the secretary of the Board and such seal shall be officially and judicially noticed.

(3) All documents, other than those required by law to be under seal, made by, and all decisions of, the Board may be signified under the hand of the chairman, any member authorized to act in that behalf, the secretary or the general manager of the Board.

(4) The Board may sue or be sued in their corporate name and may for all purposes be described by such name.

Procedure and meetings.

12.—(1) The Board shall meet at such times as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of business, and such meetings shall be held at such places and times and on such days as the Board may determine.

(2) The chairman may at any time call a special meeting of the Board and shall call a special meeting to be held within seven days of a written requisition for that purpose addressed to him by any three members of the Board.

(3) The chairman, or in the case of the absence or inability to act of the chairman, any person duly authorized to act as chairman shall preside at the meetings of the Board, and the chairman or such person so presiding shall have an original and a casting vote.

(4) The quorum of the Board shall be ten including the chairman or person duly authorized to act as chairman, and in the case of a special meeting called by the chairman under this section the quorum shall include at least one member nominated by each of the nominating bodies.

(5) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section the Board shall have the power to regulate their own proceedings.

(6) The validity of any proceeding of the Board shall not be affected by any vacancy amongst the members thereof or by any defect in the appointment of a member thereof.

Executive Committee.

13.—(1) Subject to the provisions of section 19 of this Law, the business of the Board shall be managed by an Executive Committee (in this Law referred to as "the Committee") constituted in accordance with the provisions of this section and all or any of the powers of the Board under this Law (except the power to make regulations) may be exercised by the Committee, subject to the general or special directions of the Board, so, however, that no direction given by the Board shall invalidate any prior act of the Committee which would have been valid if no such direction had been given.

(2) The Committee shall consist of—

- (a) the chairman of the Board who shall be chairman of the Committee;
- (b) unless he already holds office as chairman, the member of the Board (not being a nominated member) appointed by the Governor in Council pursuant to the provisions of section 3 (2) of this Law;
- (c) eight members of the Board who shall, subject to the provisions of this section, be appointed by the Board at their first meeting and thereafter at their first meeting in each year, and who shall be representative of the nominating bodies as follows—
 - (i) persons carrying on the business of supplying hotel accommodation to tourists in the Island—five members so, however, that not more than four of such members shall be representative of the Jamaica Hotels Association;
 - (ii) the Jamaica Chamber of Commerce Limited—one member;
 - (iii) the Airlines Association of Jamaica—one member; and
 - (iv) persons carrying on the business of supplying transportation to tourists travelling within the Island—one member.

(3) Any member of the Committee appointed under the provisions of paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section shall, subject to the provisions of this section, hold office as such until the appointment of his successor, but he shall be eligible for re-appointment.

(4) If the office of any member of the Committee appointed under the provisions of paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section becomes vacant before the time specified in the said paragraph for appointing his successor, the Board shall, as soon as may be practicable, meet and appoint another member to fill his place on the Committee during the remainder of the term for which he was appointed.

(5) The Board may appoint any member thereof to act temporarily in the place of a member of the Committee in the case of the absence or inability to act of such member and any person so appointed to act shall be representative of the same interests as the member in whose place he is appointed.

(6) Subsections (1), (2), (3) and (6) of section 12 of this Law shall apply to the Committee as they apply to the Board.

(7) If the chairman is absent from a meeting of the Committee, the other members of the Committee present at the meeting shall elect one of their number to preside thereat.

(8) The quorum of the Committee shall be five including the chairman or the person duly authorized to act as chairman, and such quorum shall include at least two members of the Committee who are not representative of the interests of the Jamaica Hotels Association.

(9) A member of the Committee shall cease to be a member thereof if he is absent from three meetings of the Committee during any one period for which he is appointed to serve thereon, unless he has obtained leave of absence from the chairman in respect of any or all of such meetings.

(10) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section the Committee shall have the power to regulate their own proceedings.

(11) The provisions of subsection (1) of this section shall not in any way relieve the Board from responsibility for the execution of their duty or the discharge of their functions under this Law.

Functions, Duties and Powers of Board.

14. It shall be the duty of the Board, within the limits of their resources—

Duty and functions of Board.

- (a) to develop all aspects of the tourist industry of Jamaica and to promote its efficiency;
- (b) to adopt all such measures as they may deem fit to advertise and publicise Jamaica as a tourist resort throughout the year;
- (c) to promote and secure such increased shipping and airline facilities as will tend to increase tourist traffic to Jamaica;
- (d) to secure the most favourable arrangements for the entry of tourists into Jamaica;
- (e) to encourage by such measures as they may deem fit the development of such amenities in Jamaica as may be calculated to enhance the attractiveness of Jamaica to tourists;
- (f) to undertake such research, experiments and operations as may appear to them to be necessary to improve the basis of the industry and to control and eliminate any undesirable factors that may affect it;
- (g) to make all such enquiries and to collect all such information as they may think necessary for the purpose of carrying out their duty under this section;

- (h) generally to take all such other lawful measures as they may consider likely to assist them in carrying out most effectually the purposes of this Law.

General powers of Board.

15.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Law, the Board shall have power, for the purpose of the execution of their duty and the discharge of their functions under section 14 of this Law—

- (a) to carry on all activities the carrying on whereof appear to them to be requisite, advantageous or convenient for or in connection with the discharge of their said duty;
- (b) to do anything and to enter into any transaction (whether or not involving expenditure, borrowing, granting of loans or investment of money, the acquisition of any property or rights or the disposal of any property or rights) which in their opinion is calculated to facilitate the proper discharge of their functions or is incidental or conducive thereto.

Borrowing powers.

16.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section the Board may borrow sums required by them for meeting any of their obligations or discharging any of their functions.

(2) The Board shall not borrow any sums whereby the aggregate amount outstanding on loan to the Board at any one time exceeds fifty thousand pounds without the approval of the Governor in Council, as to the amount, as to the sources of the borrowing and as to the terms on which the borrowing may be effected and an approval given in any respect for the purposes of this subsection may be either unconditional or subject to conditions.

Remuneration of members.

17. The Board shall pay to each member of the Board, in respect of his office as such, such, if any, remuneration and allowances as the Governor in Council may determine and to the chairman, in respect of his office as such, such, if any, remuneration and allowances (in addition to any remuneration or allowances to which he may be entitled in respect of his office as a member) as may be so determined.

18. The Board may appoint and employ at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as they think fit a general manager, a secretary, and such officers, agents and servants as they deem necessary for the proper carrying out of the provisions of this Law.

Appointment of officers, agents and servants.

19. The Board may, by a two-thirds majority vote of the members thereof, delegate to the chairman, or to the general manager appointed by the Board the routine administration of any of the business of the Board.

Delegation of powers.

20.—(1) The Board may, with the approval of the Minister, make regulations generally for the better carrying out of the purposes of this Law and in particular but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing may make regulations providing for—

Regulations.

- (a) the measures and methods to be adopted in improving the basis of the tourist industry in Jamaica and in controlling and eliminating undesirable factors that may affect it;
- (b) the registration of hotels catering for tourists;
- (c) the keeping of records of the number of tourists in Jamaica during any period and of the countries to which they belong; and
- (d) the imposition of fees or charges in such cases as may be determined by the Board for services rendered by the Board, their servants or agents, in carrying out the provisions of this Law.

(2) Regulations made under this section may empower any person, whether such person be a member or officer or servant of the Board or not, to issue such directions to owners or managers of hotels and other persons engaged in the tourist industry as may be necessary for securing compliance with or carrying out the purposes of this Law or of any regulations made thereunder.

(3) All regulations made under this section shall be laid as soon as may be after the making thereof before the House of Representatives and the Legislative Council, and if the House of Representatives or the Legislative Council within twenty-one days from the date on which any such regulations are laid as aforesaid, resolves that the regulations be annulled, the regulations shall thereupon cease to have effect but without prejudice to anything previously done thereunder or to the making of new regulations.

In reckoning any such period of twenty-one days as aforesaid, no account shall be taken of any time during which the House of Representatives or the Legislative Council is dissolved or prorogued or during which the House is adjourned for more than four days or the Council for more than six days.

Liability of members of Board or of Committee.

21. No member of the Board or of the Committee shall be personally liable for any act or default of the Board or of the Committee done or omitted to be done in good faith in the course of the operations of the Board or of the Committee.

Powers of Minister.

22. The Minister may give to the Board directions of a general character as to the policy to be followed in the exercise and performance of their functions under this Law in relation to matters appearing to him to concern the public interest and the Board shall give effect to any such directions.

Financial Provisions.

Funds and resources
of Board.

23. The funds and resources of the Board shall consist of—

- (a) such sums as may be provided annually for the purpose in the Estimates of Revenue and Expenditure of the Island;

- (b) all sums received by the Board as payment for advertisements;
- (c) all sums collected under the authority of regulations made under this Law;
- (d) all other sums or property which may in any manner become payable to or vested in the Board in respect of any matter incidental to their powers and duties.

24. The Board shall keep proper accounts in a form which shall conform with the best commercial standards of their receipts, payments, credits and liabilities and shall submit the same from time to time with vouchers to a duly qualified auditor to be audited.

Accounts and audit.

25.—(1) The Board shall in each year prepare and present on or before the 1st day of October to the Governor in Council a report of their proceedings during the twelve months ending on the 31st day of March in such year.

Annual report and estimates.

(2) A copy of such report shall be laid on the Table of the House of Representatives and of the Legislative Council and shall be published in the Gazette.

(3) The Board shall, as soon as may be practicable after the 1st day of January in each year, submit to the Governor in Council for approval, their estimates of revenue and expenditure in respect of the period commencing on the 1st day of April in such year and ending on the 31st day of March of the following year, and a copy of such estimates, as approved, shall be published in the Gazette and in a daily newspaper circulating in the Island.

Transitional Provisions and Repeal.

26. Forthwith upon the commencement of this Law—

Transitional provisions.

- (a) all the assets (including real and personal property) and the liabilities of the former Board shall be vested in and transferred to the Board established under this Law;

- (b) in any case in which a contract has been entered into by the former Board, the Board shall be deemed to be a party to the contract and to have all the rights and obligations granted to or imposed on the former Board by such contract, and may sue or be sued in respect thereof.

Repeal.
Cap. 889.

27. The Tourist Trade Development Board Law is hereby repealed.
